Continuing Education Program Overview

The Continuing Education for Licensed Customs Brokers Final Rule (88 FR 41224) amends CBP regulations to require continuing education for all active individual customs broker license holders.

What?

Active individual license holders will be required to take 36 hours of continuing education every three (3) years (equivalent to one hour per month).

When?

Continuing education requirements will begin in the triennial period that runs from 2024-2027 and will be reported to CBP as part of the broker's Triennial Status Report.

How?

Educational opportunities will be available on cbp.gov, to include CBP events and relevant PGA trainings. CBP Partner Accreditors will review private sector training content for broker continuing education.
